Applicants seeking to qualify for Florida residency for tuition purposes must complete and return the residency affidavit on the back of this form. Failure to do so will result in the assessment of course fees for a non-Florida resident.

A Florida resident for tuition purposes is a person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained legal residency in Florida for at least 12 consecutive months preceding the first day of classes of the term for which Florida residency is sought. Residence in Florida must be as a bonafide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a residence incident to enrollment at an institution of higher education.

To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes, you must be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident alien or legal alien granted indefinite stay by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services. Other persons not meeting the 12 month legal residence requirement may be classified as Florida residents for tuition purposes only if they fall within one of the limited special categories authorized by the Florida Legislature and the State Board of Education. All other persons are ineligible for classification as a Florida resident for tuition purposes.

Living in or attending school in Florida will not, in itself, establish legal residence. Students who depend on out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be legal residents of the same state as their parents. Residence for tuition purposes requires the establishment of legal ties to the state of Florida. Students must verify that they have broken ties to other states if the student or, in the case for dependent students, his or her parent, has moved from another state.

Non-Florida Residents: I understand that I do not qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes for the term to which I have applied. I also understand that if I should qualify for Florida residency in some future term, I must file the required documentation prior to the beginning of that term.
